The new edition of WHO'S WHO is now in active preparation. We shall be grateful if you will make any essential alterations or additions on this proof — please do not retype the entry — and return it at once, with or without corrections.

Please mark any changes in the personal or professional details of your entry. It should be noted that present or immediate past position only is placed after the name; then personal details, followed by main career, part-time and honorary appointments. When possible, future events — eg. change of appointment, retirement, change of address, publication of books — should be anticipated, in order to keep the volume up-to-date. Such information is treated as strictly confidential until publication of the new edition.

The inclusion and editing of any information is at the discretion of the publishers.
