When the map of Lhasa was prepared by Peter Aufschnaiter and Heinrich Harrer, Peter was using the Theodolite belonged to my father. Measurement was done jointly by Peter and Heinrich. Heinrich did most of the work in finding the names of places with the help of Sholkhang Wangdu La who wrote in Tibetan. Kusho Tsenam La also helped Heinrich during the work. Tsenam La was the husband of my aunt Tsering Dolma who were staying with Peter and Heinrich in the same courtyard.
